

Rev. Aaron A. Hudnall Jr.

Aaron Armstrong Hudnall Jr. was born and raised in Northumberland County, Virginia. He moved to Baltimore, Maryland at the age of 18. Aaron accepted Jesus Christ as his Lord and Savior in July of 1987 and his whole life changed. It was a few years later that Aaron understood that God had called him to preach the Gospel. He joined Falls Road A.M.E. Church in 1993, under the pastoral leadership of Rev. Arthur B. Glover.

In 1995 he stepped out on faith and starting his own business, H & H Lawn Care and Maintenance. In 1996, he married Alicia Black of Manassas, Virginia. In 1997 he was ordained a local deacon by Bishop Vinton R. Anderson of the Washington Annual Conference. Over the next four years Aaron and Alicia were given three wonderful miracles in the forms of Naomi, Aaron III, and Faith Hudnall.

Rev. Hudnall served on the Ministerial Staff at Falls Road for over 20 years most recently under the leadership of Pastor Raymond F. Edmonds, Jr.

In April of 2021 Rev. Aaron Hudnall accompanied his wife to the new pastoral assignment of Cowdensville A.M.E. Church, located in Arbutus Maryland. There Rev. Hudnall serves as an associate minister and the Trustee Board Pro-Tem.

Rev. Hudnall walks every day of his life knowing that he has a loving Father who has always provided for him and his family. This knowledge allows him to walk with confidence in the God that he loves and serves. His favorite hymn is Lead Me, Guide Me. One scripture in particular that he loves is Romans 8:28 which says, "And we know that all things work together for the good to them that love God, to them who are called according to his purpose".
